RAILROAD NOTES

Many Workmen Busy While the Weather Is Favorable.

Several Matters of Interest Out About the Shops This Morning.

Mr. J. M. Eskridge, a popular young man of Vine Grove, Ky., arrived this morning, and was installed as superintendent of the oil department of the Illinois Central, succeeding Mr. Champion, who has been there for some time. Mr. Eskridge comes well recommended and is destined to become very popular with the boys.

The building which formerly served as dispatcher's office and headquarters for Trainmaster Flynn and Vice-master Surran, is being dismantled, and will be torn completely away. It is near this site that the company's "green house," for raising all its plants, will be located.

The rollers were placed under the union depot shed this morning, and the large force of men at work on it will soon have it moved. They have thus far done an admirable job, and one of the best of its kind ever undertaken in Paducah.

Mr. A. M. Hewitt, formerly of the city and member of Mr. M. M. Hewitt, of the master mechanic's office, is reported dangerously ill at her home in Texas.

MR. PLASTER OF PARIS.

Will Appear at Morton's Opera House Tonight.

The attraction at Morton's opera house tonight will be the new comedy, "Mr. Plaster of Paris." Secure your seats at Van Culin's book store.

MARRIED THIS MORNING.

Mr. F. F. Younker and Miss Rosalie M. Poath, of the St. John's sect on of the county, were married this morning at 9 o'clock in the Catholic church at that place. Rev. Father Auer officiating. They are well-known young people and have many friends in the city as well as in county.

DISASTROUS NAVY YARD FIRE.

BOSTON, Nov. 25.—A fire partly destroyed the Charleston navy yard this morning doing damage to almost one million dollars in extent.

FULTON KILLING

Mail Agents Fall Out and Both Use Their Pistols In Their Anger.

GOLSBY KILLED BY MOORE

They Had a Dispute About a Settlement—Golsby Shot
First, It Seems.

MOORE GAVE HIMSELF UP

A fatal shooting affray occurred in the mail agents' transfer room in the I. C. depot at Fulton, Ky., last night shortly before 12 o'clock. Postal Clerk J. W. Golsby being shot three times and mortally wounded by Postal Clerk John Moore.

Both men ran between Fulton and New Orleans, and were well known in Fulton, where they have their headquarters. The original home of each was in Mississippi.

It is claimed that they had been at beggars for some time, and last night, in the transfer room, frequented by clerks while off duty, got into a controversy over a settlement for extra time one had worked for the other.

Words were followed by blows, and finally Golsby knocked Moore down, the latter falling on the floor on a heap of mail sacks.

He alleges that Golsby drew a pistol and shot at him. He drew his own weapon at this juncture, and while rising fired four shots, three of which took effect. One struck Golsby in the upper lip and the other in the face.

When Moore gave himself up a few moments later, there were four empty chambers in his pistol.

One empty chamber in the other man's pistol showed that he had fired one shot.

It was thought from the start that Golsby was fatally injured, and he died about 3 o'clock, three hours after the shooting. Both men were off duty, and it was generally supposed in Fulton today that Moore would be acquitted in a plea of self defense.

HOBART'S FUNERAL.

Nation's Representatives Present to Pay Respect to the Dead.

PATERSON, N. J., Nov. 25.—Many representative men of the nation are gathered here to pay the last tribute of respect to and honor to the memory of Vice President Hobart. Two special trains bearing the president, cabinet members, the supreme court and members of congress and high adminis-
morning.

All business in Paterson is suspended today. All buildings are draped in the deepest black. Everywhere flags are lowered to half mast. The St.
John Hall, Hobart family home, is filled with flowers sent from all parts of the country in the past two days.
The remains of the vice president rested in the library this morning and are still there surrounded by banks of flowers. In the dead state, a small band lay a small bunch of violets, a token from Mrs. McKinley.

The arrangements include a reception of the president on his arrival, and he will go immediately to Carroll Hall, where private service begins at 2 o'clock. The program includes hymn singing by quartette, prayer, sermon and benediction by Dr. Magee. Public service in the church of Redeemer follows. The funeral party, including the president and party, will occupy front rows in the church, and behind it the supreme court and in the rear the members of congress.

DIED IN MISSISSIPPI.

Mrs. A. C. Kronfeldt died this morning at Corinth, Miss. The remains are to be taken to Kuttawa to prepare for burial in the family burying grounds. Deceased was a sister of Mrs. Jacob Zeigler and formerly lived here. The intelligence will be learned with regret by all friends of the lady and her family.

F. W. CLARK DEAD.

Mr. F. M. Clark, one of Paducah's best known men, died this morning at his home, 1719 Broad street, from old age.

He had been in feeble health for the past several months, and death was not unexpected.

The deceased for years run the Clark's river ferry. He was at one time very wealthy, but lost all his property and died a poor man.

He was 75 years old and leaves only an adopted daughter, Mrs. Mollie Hildreth. His wife died a few years ago.

The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock from his residence, here at Oak Grove.

POLICE COURT.

Fines Yesterday Afternoon—Car-Continued This Morning.

Eight heavy house keepers were yesterday afternoon fined $40 and costs in Judge Saffers court for their offense. This is done just before the grand jury meets every December.
The case against William Johnson, alias "Box Car Bill," charged with maliciously cutting a man named Alexander, was continued until Monday.

The housebreaking case against Harvey Stetson, who is alleged to have stolen an overcoat from George Mosby, was continued until Wednesday.
He was arrested in Mayfield by Marshal McNutt, of that place.

A case against Starting Smith, charged with gaming, was continued until Monday.

The breach of the peace case against D. J. Armstrong was dismissed.
Isadore Herring and Dona Beale were fined $1 and costs each for a breach of the peace by using insulting language.

The immorality case against Charles Hoke and Lizzie Hoige, colored, was left open.

CONDITIONS IN PHILIPPINES.

Outlook Regarded Favorable By Gen. Otis in Spite of Troubles.

MANILA, P. I., Nov. 25.—In a cablegram this morning General Otis tells of a new outbreak of the insurgents south of Iloilo, but appears unconcerned. He says: "Rebels made a fatal mistake last night. Three enlisted men were wounded, two rebels killed and one captured. The insurgents quickly withdrew. Additional troops were sent from Manila today. The insurgents will be driven south. Reports from Negros are encouraging. The chief insurgent leader north of the island recently surrendered voluntarily. More planting is being done and more sugar mills are at work than at any time since the revolution against Spain began.
The officers report the people apparently cheerful and hopeful. The form of government in operation is well suited to the conditions and working smoothly."

MANILA, P. I., Nov. 25.—General Wheaton has gathered in Aguinaldo's son, Hucanano, the former secretary of state, was also captured.
Lawrence, an Englishman, serving Philippines as an artillery officer, was also taken. He is believed to be the man who brought a lunch from Hong Kong for Aguinaldo's escape. Agui-naldo with part of his family escaped with two hundred troops between General Wheaton and Yung. Young is in close pursuit. Aguinaldo's mother was with his son and Hucanano, but was lost in the woods. Two thousand dollars in gold belonging to her was seized by the Americans.
General MacArthur captured the insurgent director of the railroad as he was endeavoring to destroy the road to Baguio. Lawton is believed to be the solitary road to Baguio.
This batch of news was brought by a vessel from the Gulf of Lingayen, which says a heavy storm prevented further landing of troops there. Incidentally three hundred former Spanish prisoners were released by the Americans. Hucanano admits the rebellion is crushed.

TRANSVAAL WAR.

Little of Interest From the Scene Today.

ORANGE RIVER, Cape Colony, Nov.
25.—A hundred and seven men wounded at Belmont have arrived here. The number includes Boers, of the latter said one man in each twenty in the Boer forces is detailed as a sharp-shooter to pick off British officers. A 17-year-old Boer boy, captured with his father, said he was forced to take up arms.

GLASGOW, Nov. 25.—It is rumored on the exchange that Marking has surrendered. The report is unconfirmed.

GLISSON HELD.

The case against John W. T. Glisson, charged with being a fugitive from justice wanted in Metropolis, Ill., for bigamy, was decided by Judge Sanders this morning, after evidence had been heard and arguments made and authorities read by the attorneys, Mr.
Graves for the commonwealth, and Mr. J. M. Gilbert for the defense.

Judge Sanders ordered him held sixty days to await a requisition, unless discharged before that by due process of law.

His attorney announced that he would take out a writ of habeas corpus and have Judge Husbands pass on it.

OVERRULED

Court of Appeals Without Dissenting Vote Decide the Nelson Vote.

GIVES IT TO W. S. TAYLOR

The County Commissioners Will Have to So Decide In Session Today.

JUSTICE STILL RULES STATE

FRANKFORT, Nov. 25.—The appellate court without a dissenting vote overruled the motion to annul Judge Jones' injunction in the Nelson county case, which means the Nelson county commissioners must certify to W. S. Taylor for the vote credited to "W. P." Taylor. This is a victory for the Republicans. The attitude of the court generally is accepted most favorably as meaning technicalities and minor re-gularities are to receive no attention from the court.

REMOVAL NOTICE.

The Central Coal and Iron company have moved to new yard on Trimbles between Eighth and Ninth, the yard formerly occupied by the Illinois coal company. We have the most complete coal yard in the city and will carry a large supply of Rinder lump, egg and nut coal, all sizes of Old Lee anthracite and lump and crushed coke, which enables us to now fill promptly all orders. Telephone

ROBBERY CHARGED.

Wm. Fox Arrested and Committed to Jail This Morning.

William Fox, a laborer on the I. C., who claims Louisville as his home, may have to spend a few years in the Edgelyville penitentiary as a result of his base cupidity and the desire to own 35 cents that Lee Beatty had in his pocket.

He and Beatty came here sometime ago to work for the railroad on its many improvements here, and last night the two men had a quarrel over the 35 cents.

Fox is alleged to have struck Beatty in the right eye and demanded the money, and Beatty says after Fox struck him again, he concluded he would rather have his life than the 35 cents, so he gave up the latter.

He had his head bound up with a red bandana handkerchief this morning when he swore out a warrant.
Fox was arrested by Officer Stone and taken to jail to await a trial Monday morning.

NEW TRIAL REFUSED.

Circuit court is still grinding slowly, and this morning there were many cases called off the equity docket.

The motion for a new trial in the case of Boss Ledinger, colored, against the Paducah Street Railway for $2,000, in which a verdict was rendered for $200, was overruled and the defendants granted an appeal.

Miss Mosher, of Pennsylvania, will address the children of Paducah on the subject of temperance and organize a Loyal Temperance Legion at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon next in the Sunday school room of the First Baptist church.

—This has been quite a winterish day, though not very cold. The skies have been cloudy and threatening, a chilling, blustery wind prevailing.
